GRAPHICS.

Mrs. Leech for Millinery.

Don't forget Dr. Johnson extracts teeth without pain.

Read advertisement of C. A. Robinson & Co.

See advertisement of Woods Bros., the horse and mule buyers in this GRAPHIC.

The sleighing Tuesday and Wednesday was excellent and was greatly enjoyed by the young people.

The United Brethren church in this city was reopened as a Holiness Chapel, Thanksgiving day at 10 o'clock.

County Convention Christian Endeavor societies convened in the M. E. church Thursday night, and will remain in session to-day.

Arthur Pollard takes charge of the Pullman sleeper on its arrival at Kirkville and puts it in order for the return trip to Chicago.

At the M. E. church Sunday: Preaching by the pastor at 10:45 a. m., and at 7 p. m. At 6 p. m. Christian Endeavor League service.

Themes at the Baptist church: Morning, "The Church and the Ordinances." Evening, "An invitation to partake of Gospel Blessings."

Mr. R. M. Ringo, cashier of the Savings Bank, has been appointed treasurer for the Alma Building and Loan Association of St. Louis.

Bishop J. W. Hott, of Cedar Rapids, Io., will dedicate the U. B. church at Gibbs next Sunday. Dedicatory Service at 11 a. m. All are invited.

The school house in Fairview district, Wilson township, was destroyed by fire last Friday morning. The fire was caused by a defective flue.

Union Thanksgiving service was held at the Baptist church Thursday morning at 11 a. m. Rev. Taylor of the M. E. church, South, preached the sermon.

Wood Bros. purchased 52 horses, mares and mules at Graves & Malone's stables last Saturday. These gentlemen think of making Kirkville their headquarters in place of Jacksonville, Ill.

Bishop Hott will lecture in the U. B. church at Brashear next Monday evening, December 2, subject, "With the Bible in Bible Lands." Admittance free. A collection will be taken for missions.

Mrs. F. A. Warner writes to the readers of the GRAPHIC from Jacksonville, Florida, and says that she will be pleased to send beautiful sea shells to any one that will send address and enclose two stamps to pay postage. The shells sent the GRAPHIC are beautiful.

Grant Rigdon, of Sperry, a young man 25 years old, was thrown from a horse Monday, and sustained injuries from which he died Tuesday morning. He was riding one horse and leading another when the animals became frightened and ran away, throwing Mr. Rigdon against a tree.

Last Saturday afternoon A. W. Sears, car inspector for the O. K. line, fell from the top of the smoker and broke his left arm, while riding the car. The car is so constructed that the ice tank has to be filled from the roof of the car, and the ice caused him to lose his footing and fall to the ground. Besides the broken arm, Mr. Sears suffered severe bruises. Al. Wilcher, former car inspector for the O. K., will have charge of Mr. Sears' work while he is disabled.

STARKS—In this city of membranous croup Sunday morning November 24, Alt. M. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Starks. Burial took place Monday. Funeral service was conducted by Rev. Morgan.

AGENTS WANTED—To take territory for sale of thill coupling and horse detach for buggies and carriages. This is one of the most useful inventions of the age, and sells at sight. Inquire of R. W. Howell, Union Restaurant, Kirkville, Mo.

Thursday morning of last week a serious accident befel Mr. James Smoyer an old and highly respected citizen, living seven miles northeast of Kirkville. He had started to Scott's coal bank for a load of coal and was driving a very spirited team. When he reached the house of James Adams a dog ran out and frightened the team causing it to run away. Mr. Smoyer was thrown violently out of the wagon and had two of his ribs and jaw bone broken, beside suffering internal injuries. Dr. Conner was called to attend him. For a time it was thought his injuries would prove fatal, but hope of his recovery is now entertained. One of the horses, a very fine animal, had his leg broken and had to be shot.

FOR SALE—A good bottom farm of 320 acres, good house and barn, farm well improved. Call on or address Mrs. Susan Sizemore Shibleys Point, Mo.

If you want a shave that leaves your face smooth, or a hair cut that is stylish and becoming, get your work done at the O. K. shop, one door north of the post office.

New line of stamped goods at Mrs. Leech's. Ladies, call and see the new patterns.

The largest stock and the greatest variety of holiday goods that was ever on the Kirkville market, is now on exhibition at Stanton's Queensware Store, north side of the square.

The model bakery and restaurant fed 150 people last Saturday.

Every man enjoys a smooth shave. Remember that the O. K. shop never fails to give you one, and that hard beards are the delight of the O. K. barbers.

Notice.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, aiding Nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents per bottle at B. F. Henry's Drug Store.

How to Prevent a Cold.

After an exposure, or when you feel a cold coming on, take a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar. It never fails. 50c. B. F. Henry druggist.

Out of Harmony.

Discord in music as in clothes is either annoying or ridiculous.

Many a garment, sold for the best, is a harsh discord of conflicting details, but in the "H. S. & M." make, you see a blending of all the parts into a perfect harmony.

An H. S. & M. garment fills the eye as good music satisfies the ear.

It is a never ending source of pleasure.

This Label on a Garment insures Perfect Fit and Satisfaction.

It stands for the Best that Money Can Buy or Skill Produce.
